

We need to do more, not less, to preserve the checks and balances in our democracy. This includes the media as well as our political branches. The media is the most powerful tool we have and we can not lose our access to all points of view. No one person or entity has THE truth; we all hold a piece of the truth and the FCC's job is to ensure that a balanced and diverse media exists in the USA.